City of Hyattsville Police Report Overnight Fatal Motorcycle Collision

(Hyattsville, MD) – At approximately 1:30 a.m. on May 22, 2021, City of Hyattsville Police Department officers responded to the report of a motorcycle crash on the 5100 block of Baltimore Avenue. Officers found the adult male motorcycle rider lying in the middle of the road not breathing. Officers immediately began life saving measures until an ambulance arrived. EMTs later pronounced the man deceased at the scene.

A witness sitting in a parked car was transported to an area hospital with injuries that did not appear to be life threatening. The Prince George's County Police Collision Analysis and Reconstruction Unit is conducting a routine investigation. For additional information call PGPD Media Relations Division at 240-521-9338.
