City of Hyattsville Police Investigate Shooting

(Hyattsville, MD) – At approximately 3:00 this morning, Maryland-National Capitol Park Police notified the City of Hyattsville Police Department (HCPD) that Park Police officers had responded to White Oak Hospital where an adult male reported being shot in the hand. The victim stated he had been walking with his girlfriend in the 4900 block of 38th Avenue when they heard multiple gunshots. The victim stated a friend drove him to the hospital. The victim's injury is not life threatening.

HCPD officers canvassed the area. The case remains open. No additional information is available at this time.
