AGE-FRIENDLY HYATTSVILLE

The City of Hyattsville is proud to be a member of the AARP Age-Friendly Communities Network.

Hyattsville's Age-Friendly Action Plan, adopted by the Mayor and Council in 2019, details steps that the city will take to become more age-friendly, working with community members, partners, and other stakeholders. The action plan includes four priority areas:

- Housing (e.g., affordable, and accessible housing)
- Home and Community-Based Services (e.g., in-home personal care services, home and yard maintenance assistance, transportation services)
- Health and Safety (e.g., emergency preparedness, falls prevention, food security)
- Communication and Outreach (e.g., increase awareness about available resources and activities, expand outreach to diverse communities)

Hyattsville's Age-Friendly Work Group helps guide implementation of the city's Age-Friendly Action Plan. The work group meets monthly; meetings are open to the public. For more information or to join the work group, please contact the city's Age-Friendly Program Lead, Marci LeFevre, at mlefevre@hyattsville.org or (301) 985-5012, or visit the City Calendar.

City of Hyattsville Services for Seniors and Persons with Disabilities

Throughout the year, the city offers numerous services, programs and events for seniors and people with disabilities. They include wellness classes and presentations, referrals to resource providers, social outings and more. To learn more about our city's available programs, please visit the City Calendar, email the city at seniors@hyattsville.org, or call (301) 985-5000 to be added to our mailing list.

City of Hyattsville Call-A-Bus

Curb-to-curb transportation to medical appointments and grocery stores for older adults and residents with disabilities operates Mondays through Fridays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Residents must make a reservation by calling (301) 985-5000 before 2 p.m. at least one business day in advance. Passengers are required to wear a face mask while entering, riding, and exiting the bus.

Hyattsville Aging in Place (HAP)

HAP provides volunteer services to Hyattsville older adults, provides referral services, and offers educational programs. HAP volunteers provide door-to-door transportation to older adults and residents with a disability to medical appointments, the grocery, and other local destinations. For more information, email HAPCares@gmail.com or call (301) 887-3101.

COUNTY, STATE, AND NATIONAL AGE-FRIENDLY RESOURCES

COVID-19 HEALTH RESOURCES

COVID-19 Testing

Free, non-appointment COVID-19 PCR testing is available for all ages at First United Methodist Church of Hyattsville, 6201 Belcrest Road. Hours of operation are Mondays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. - 3 p.m., and Saturdays from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. (Except holidays.) For other COVID-19 test sites in Prince George's County, visit the County's COVID-19 testing page at www.princegeorgescountymd.gov for a locator map, or call 311 for a list of available sites.

COVID-19 Test Kits

At-home COVID-19 rapid test kits can be purchased from major retailers or ordered for free at www.covidtests.gov (en español www.covidtests.gov/es), or by calling (800) 232-0233; (888) 720-7489 (TTY).

Individuals are encouraged to report positive at-home rapid test results to the Maryland Department of Health by visiting www.covidlink.maryland.gov/selfreport.

COVID-19 Vaccinations

A COVID-19 vaccine can prevent serious illness by allowing your body to create antibodies that protect you from contracting the COVID-19 virus. Anyone aged 6 months or older is eligible for a COVID-19 vaccine, regardless of insurance or immigration status. Fully vaccinated individuals 5 and older are also eligible for a booster dose of the vaccine.

The COVID-19 testing site at First United Methodist Church of Hyattsville offers first and second vaccine doses and booster shots on Tuesdays between 11 a.m. - 7 p.m. and Saturdays between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. Both walk-ins and appointments are available. To make an appointment in advance, call (240) 832-6952.

COVID-19 Vaccination Cards

You can request a copy of your vaccination record through the Maryland Health Department at the MyIR mobile site, a free immunization portal for Maryland residents. You can also email mdh.mdimmunet@maryland.gov or call (443) 863-0121, (443) 303-8421 or (410) 935-9295 to request a copy of your vaccination record.
